

MEDIA RELEASE

Forest Walk with a Forester

The Victorian Division of the IFA is inviting interested persons to come on a guided walk in the forest to discuss forestry issues with forestry professionals.

The IFA is an advocate of sustainable forest management that meets all of the community's objectives for the environment, the economy and for the community.

The walk is a chance to discuss how this can be achieved in Victoria, especially on public land.

The walk is open to any interested person and invited groups include The Friends of Sherbrooke Forest, Lawyers for Forests, Law Students Society, Melbourne University Forest Collective, Forestry Students and IFA members.

The details are:

Sunday 12 November 2006.

From 10.00 am to 1.00 pm

Sherbrooke Picnic Ground,
Sherbrooke Road (Melway's 75 G2)

Bring Sturdy Boots, Raincoat, Sunscreen and Picnic Lunch

RSVP Gary Featherston gary@foreststrategy.com.au
