

Expression of Interest Future Foresters Committee

The Future Foresters Initiative (FFI) Committee is made up of young forestry professionals and forest science students across Australia. The purpose of the FFI is to provide support to early career professionals from scientific forestry or related fields, through mentoring, training, networking and other social and professional development activities.

OUR MISSION

- Connect future foresters with industry and government organisations across Australia and with other international organisations;
- Grow our influence on policy, visibility and representation in the industry; and
- Learn from the best through a range of leadership and mentoring programs.

HOW WE HELP

- We are involved in organising of a range of events, both social and professional, to forge and strengthen connections;
- We promote the achievements of young foresters and regularly publish stories for Forestry Australia members.
- We advocate for young foresters across Forestry Australia's sub-committees.

If you are interested in volunteering on the Future Foresters Initiative Committee, please refer to the Expression of Interest form below. Please note that you must be a Forestry Australia member, or willing to become a member, to be considered.

Volunteering on the Future Foresters Initiative Committee is a wonderful opportunity for Forestry Australia members with an interest in leadership and governance to gain valuable experience and contribute to the future direction of Forestry Australia.

Expressions of Interest to be part of the Future Foresters Initiative Committee must be made using the template below and include:

- No more than 200 words about why you would like to be part of the Future Forester's Initiative Committee and what you can bring to the role.
- No more than a 200-word introduction about you and your background for the Committee.
- A current copy of your CV.

Please forward the completed Expression of Interest form, along with your current CV, to admin@forestry.org.au by Thursday 31 July
